Will Open Shortly.

No definite date has been set for the opening of the doors of the company. That will be determined with other matters at the formal organization meeting on Thursday, but it will be not later than February 1. In fact, the trust company may open the first of the year, without waiting until the First National vacates the banking room it proposes to use as its permanent home.

The new company, President Habliston stated, would be in a position to finance the largest as well as the smallest of Southern enterprises, and ment of a budget system of handling governmental finances. Accompanying this message will be a sample budget framed by President Taft's foonomy and Efficiency Commission. The estimates in the usual form will be sent to Congress on Monday.

SECOND MESSAGE

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Chicago, November 30.—Perfume was used by detectives to-day in solving the disappearance of small "sums of money from the University of Chicago Press building, and led to the afrest of a youth who said he was taking the money to buy an aeroplane.
Three weeks ago detectives were put to work disguised as workmen, ostensibly repairing the building. They perfumed the money. To-day a young shipping clerk passed close to the "workmen" at the close of the day's tusiness. Scenting the perfume, the officers stopped him and demanded: "The money he had just taken."

Underwood Announces His Harmony Program

Ispecial to The Times-Dispatch.]
Washington. November 30.—A karmony program, whereby radical tariff revisionists in the Democratic House will endeavor to push drastic tariff cuts through the Senate, despite the sexuall Democratic majority in the upper house, and the leaning of several Democratic Senators to protective duties was announced to-night by Chairman Underwood, of the House Ways and Means Committee.

Underwood's plan is to have the House framer's of the tariff bill or hills confer freely with the Democratis in the Senate, who will be called upon to engineer passage of the measure through the upperhouse. The House leader will fight for bills containing as drastic cuts as those which the House passed at the last seasion, and he is expected to force the support of some of the Democratic Senators who have in the past voted for protection on such commodities as sugar, cotton and lumber by appeal to party solidarity.

Early Action is Predicted.

"I do not believe that a very long me will be required to put through the tariff legislation," said the Senator. "I expect the bills will come to be Senate from the House one after the other, each revising a particular hedule, but I do not know positively that plans Chairman Underwood and a colleagues have made.

Like Mr. Enderwood, he believes that the chances are strong in favor of the prosecution of an income tax law, provided two more States ratify the legislational engendment between now and the time the extra session meets.

Fight to Detegt Howard in Scuale. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Washington, Kovember 20.—A fight foreshadowed in the Senate to defeat the confirmation of Clinton A. Howard as successe to Judge Cor-nelius Hanford. Ser or Poindexter is preparing to wage a determined fight to secure Howard's repudiation by the ter's office. Letters have already been sent to every member of the Senate audiciary Committee, and when the appointment is brought up probably in the first or second executive session. Senator Poindexter will demand that Howard's name be withdrawn or his appointment ordented. It will be Howard's name be withdrawn or his appointment defented. It will be shown that a great percentage of the public protest against the Howard gd-waterment but come from Bellingham, where he lives."

The charges made against Howard in the flood of letters which has come to the national capital from the Northwest is that he is too friendly to corrections and is allied with the same porations and is ailled with the same interests that found favor with ex-judge Hanford, who resigned just sum-mer while under investigation by a congressional committee.
